Feasts this week

Monday	This year the Solemnity of All Saints is moved to Sunday 31 st October
Tuesday	Feast of All Souls - today we celebrate all those who have gone before us and are waiting in Purgatory for admittance to heaven.
Wednesday	St Martin de Porres was the son of an African slave, the Dominican Prior ignored the law that he could not become a friar and let him take vows. He is known for his care for the sick. St Winefride, was murdered, a spring came up that is still a place of pilgrimage in Wales.
Thursday	St Charles Borromeo, zealously applied the teaching of the Church whilst caring for the sick.

Eucharistic Procession

There will be a Eucharistic Procession from St Joseph's this Sunday, 31st of October which is the Solemnity of All Saints. Gathering at 2.45pm, starting at 3pm, followed by Benediction in church

Prayer for COP26

Loving God, we praise your name with all you have created.

You are present in the whole universe, and in the smallest of creatures.

We acknowledge the responsibilities you have placed upon us as stewards of your creation.

May the Holy Spirit inspire all political leaders at COP26 as they seek to embrace the changes needed to foster a more sustainable society.

Instil in them the courage and gentleness to implement fairer solutions for the poorest and most vulnerable, and commit their nations to the care of Our Common Home.

We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ your Son. Amen
