"Do not cast me off in my old age"

A message from His Holiness Pope Francis for the Day of Grandparents and the Elderly

God never abandons his children, never. Even when our age advances and our powers decline, when our hair grows white and our role in society lessens, when our lives become less productive and can risk appearing useless. God does not regard appearances; he does not disdain to choose those who, to many people, may seem irrelevant.

Let us show our tender love for the grandparents and the elderly members of our families. Let us spend time with those who are disheartened and no longer have hope in the possibility of a different future. In place of the self-centred attitude that leads to loneliness and abandonment, let us instead show the open heart and the joyful face of men and women who have the courage to say "I will not abandon you".

To all of you, dear grandparents and elderly persons, and to all those who are close to you I send my blessing, accompanied by my prayers. And I ask you, please, not to forget to pray for me.
